Al Jazeera Finance opens new headquarters in Al Sadd

With the presence of HE Sheikh Abdullah bin Saoud AL Thani, Qatar Central Bank Governor, Al Jazeera Finance will officially inaugurated their new flagship tower at the premises in Al Sadd Street. This announcement came to strengthen the firm's commitment of providing the highest standards of

The 6-storey tower includes elegant corporate offices, client hospitality suites and a state of the art showroom. Welcoming HE Sheikh Abdullah bin Saoud AL Thani, respected journalists and renowned invitees, Al Jazeera Finance Chairman Mr. Mohammed Bin Abdullatif Al Manaa and Al Jazeera Finance CEO Khursheed Hassan will officially announce the opening.

'Our commitment to leadership and innovation in the Sharia'a compliant financing sector is reflected in all design elements, with the ultimate goal of delivering the very best services to our individual and corporate clients. With upgrades to our call centre and continual training and developments of our support teams, we are confident that we will continue to enhance our standards from the new premises,' said Al Jazeera Finance's chairman, Mohammed Bin Abdullatif Al Manaa.

'The new head office reflects our commitment to providing world class customer services through well designed and strategically located offices' said CEO Hassan.

'Moreover, our newly adopted corporate strategy reflects continued growth that results in the need for a wider office space to accommodate our team,' added CEO Hassan from his new suite, 'The move represents a major step forward in our long-term strategy to become a leading Sharia'a Compliant lender in Qatar.'

Located in an emerging quarter of the Al Sadd business district, the new building neighbours some of the city's leading corporate and commercial organisations. The showroom features a chic open plan layout that gives the public easy one-on-one access to a representative, without long queues or lengthy delays.

Al Jazeera Finance has recently launched a new, more flexible approach to Sharia'a Compliant financing, allowing customers a more comfortable manner in which to achieve their goals; including home, vehicle, wedding and gifts financing.

Unlike most banking models which focus on funding a single asset, Al Jazeera Finance's open financing assists its customers in creating tailor-made credit packages using Murabaha, Mosawama, Mosharaka and other Sharia'a Compliant financing models that can fully service their financing requirements.

The launch of the new corporate headquarters coincides with the company's recent change of name and vision, and an ambitious marketing campaign that showcases an innovative range of financial products, giving clients more flexibility than ever to meet their financial obligations.
