

Al Jazeera Finance offers Sharia-compliant plans

TRIBUNE NEWS NETWORK

DOHA

AL JAZEERA Finance has launched a range of Sharia compliant holiday financing solutions for nationals and residents that will suit the individual needs and preferences of its customers.

In a press release issued on Saturday, Al Jazeera Finance Executive Manager Mohammed J Yousef said, "At Al Jazeera Finance we are constantly evolving our service offerings to suit the needs of our customers. With the holiday season approaching we want to place an easily accessible Sharia compliant financing solution at the fingertips of our clients. We take pride in not just providing them with a high level of service but also in developing a strong, long lasting relationship with them."

The firm's holiday financing

An Al Jazeera official attends to a client.

offers packages that range from luxury vacations to top international cities, to package holidays catering either to an individual's requirements or family vacations to any holiday destination of choice.

In addition, Al Jazeera Finance recently launched four new and more flexible solutions to Sharia compliant financing; home, vehicle, wedding and gifts financing; offering customers a more comfortable manner in which to achieve their goals.

With the holiday financing option, the company finances either the entire holiday or elements of it depending on the requirement of the customer. By opting for a package that covers individual elements that suit one's circumstances clients can cover vacation elements ranging from luggage, airfares, hotels and other expenses.

Al Jazeera Finance launches holiday financing solutions

DOHA: Al Jazeera Finance, Qatar's leading Shariah-compliant finance company, has launched a wide range of Holiday Financing solutions to nationals and residents of Qatar.

It has brought out Shariah compliant holiday financing packages to suit the individual needs and preferences of its customers out of its deep commitment to providing its clients with the highest standards of customer service by anticipating their financing needs, said the company in a news release.

Speaking from the company's recently inaugurated flagship building at Suhaim Bin Hamad Street in Al Sadd, Al Jazeera Finance's Executive Manager, Mohammed J Yousef, said: "At Al Jazeera Finance we are constantly evolving our service offerings to suit the needs of our customers."

"With the holiday season approaching we wanted to place an easily accessible Shariah compliant financing solution at the fingertips of our clients. We take pride in not just providing them with a high level of service but also in developing a strong, long lasting relationship with them."

Al Jazeera Finance's Holiday Financing offers packages that range from luxury vacations to top international cities, package holidays catering either to an individual's requirements or family vacations to any holiday destination of choice. In addition to the newly launched Holiday Financing solutions, Al Jazeera Finance has recently launched four new and more flexible solutions to Shariah compliant financing; home, vehicle, wedding and gifts financing; offering customers a more comfortable manner in which to achieve their goals.

THE PENINSULA